Atlee Pomerene will be the prosecuting attorney of Stark county. His fight is simply a personal triumph. His election is due to 1,500 Republicans, who voted for him as asginst C. C. Upham. Let it be said to the oredit of these 1,500 Republicans that they flung partisanship to the wall and voted for the best man when they reached the county ticket. Mr. Pomerene's triumph is the greatest personal triumph ever achieved by any Democrat who ever ran for a county office. Although the head of the Repub lican ticket has carried the county over 1,000, Mr. Pomerene's majority is surely 500. Here is a change of over 1,500 votes True, Democrats have been elected to county office by larger majorities, but we can recall no candidate in twenty year who ran for a county office that achieved a greater personal triumph.

In 1877 Mr. R. S. Shields was elected prosecuting attorney by 2,200 majority, but he had the adayntage of a party majority of a little over a thousand. In 1899 Mr. O. M. Coxen was elected county clerk by 2,200 majority, but he likewis had the advantage of party majority of
